ROVNO AND LUTSK EVACUATED BY GERMANS

Vital Strongholds Inside Poland Are Occupied by Reds

Berlin Discloses New Offensive Has Been Launched and Says Soviet Army Has Crossed Middle Gorin River

OTHER NEW RUSSIAN THRUSTS ARE REPORTED

By E. D. BALL
London, Feb. 3.—(AP)—In a triumphant order of the day, Marshal Stalin announced today the joining of the first and second Ukrainian fronts, trapping 10 German divisions, after the German high command had acknowledged the loss of Lutsk (Luck) and Rovno in old Poland.

Stalin proclaimed the capture of Smela, rail center in the Dnieper bend, and said the two mighty Red armies of Gen. Nikolai Vatutin and Gen. Ivan S. Konev had made gains up to 45 miles in a 100-mile break-through of the German lines.

Stalin did not mention Lutsk, 70 miles inside the pre-war Polish frontier, or Rovno, 30 miles west of the old border. Evacuation of these places had been admitted earlier in a sweeping acknowledgment of losses by the German high command, broadcast in the daily German communiqué.

To the north, meanwhile, the Russians had reached the Narova river within Estonia.

The Nazi withdrawal from Lutsk was surprising, since last previous reports from this sector of the eastern front had placed the fighting in the area of Rovno, 40 miles to the east, and there had been no indication that Lutsk was yet menaced.

Although the Russians themselves have not disclosed a new offensive in this region, Berlin reported last night that an intensified Soviet drive had been launched and said the Red army had crossed the middle Gorin river which runs west of Rovno.

Further to the southeast the communiqué said the Russians were attacking Shepetovka. New Soviet thrusts also were reported on the Nikopol bridgehead while southwest of Dnepropetrovsk the Nazis admittedly were heavily engaged against advancing Soviet tank formations.

Lutsk, capital of the Polish province of Volhynia, is 50 miles a portion of the "Curzon Line" east of the Bug river which formerly was the basis for a post war boundary with Poland. Thus its capture would place the Red army approximately two-thirds of the way across the section of Poland which the Russians expect to hold permanently.

Both Lutsk and Rovno are important rail and highway centers with pre war populations in the neighborhood of 35,000-40,000. Loss of Lutsk would mean the Germans have lost the use of a major railway from Warsaw to Odessa, although a more southern route still is available.

There was a possibility that the withdrawal from Lutsk meant the Germans already are preparing to take up positions along the Polish Bug river, 240 miles from the German frontier, for a decisive stand.

The Germans also were being pushed back inside Estonia, where (Turn to Page Eleven)

Soldier Vote Substitute Not Acceptable

BULLETIN
Washington, Feb. 3.—(P)—In a quick shift of strategy, senate administration leaders agreed informally today to accept an amendment to pending service vote legislation which would confine use of a proposed federal war ballot large forces overseas.

By HOWARD FLIEGER
Washington, Feb. 3.—(P)—Administration senators spurned a "meaningless" today a proposal by Republicans and southern Democrats to substitute state for federal ballots this November in states which get them ready for mailing to the armed forces in time. (Turn to Page Eleven)

Willkie's Tax Set-up Draws Swift Retorts

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY
Washington, Feb. 3.—(P)—Wendell L. Willkie's call for an additional multi-billion dollar wartime tax program drew swift retorts from some Republicans on Capitol Hill today, one of whom described Willkie's revenue proposal as "even more unrealistic and unsound than the president's."

The 1940 Republican presidential nominee urged in an address in New York last night that taxes be hiked now "beyond any limit that we have hitherto imagined possible" in order to prevent a national debt that "would jeopardize the very things for which we fight."

A Democratic senator, Ed Johnson of Colorado, made this comment: "I don't take Willkie seriously on any of his suggestions."

By SAMUEL G. BLACKMAN
New York, Feb. 3.—(P)—Wendell L. Willkie says the nation needs now "a tough tax program" of at least 16 billion dollars to help pay for the war or it risks losing "in debt the victory we have gained in blood."

He urged increased taxes "beyond any limit that we have hitherto imagined possible" in an address last night at the first of a series of New York Times Forums on home front problems.

The huge task of disposing of the piles of refuse began after the AFL-Refuse Collectors and Helpers Local 709 voted yesterday to end the walkout.

Resumption of garbage collection means the end of what City Health Director I. Hope Alexander described as "the worst health menace the city has seen in years."

Yesterday's vote was taken as city council apparently neared a decision to turn over the garbage collection job to a private contractor after having seen eight strikes during three years of municipal operation.

Some Boys Overseas Will Get Furloughs

Washington, Feb. 3.—(P)—American veterans of long hitches in World War II may soon be coming home on furlough under a "troop rotation" plan to be inaugurated by the War Department.

Lieut. Gen. Millard F. Harmon, commanding general of army forces in the South Pacific, disclosed yesterday that such a program will begin with men who have been in the area two years or longer. But he warned that it would be tempered by combat requirements and transportation facilities, and that it could not be construed as promising a furlough for all men of two years service in the south Pacific.

Fire Damages Printz Store In Jamestown

Jamestown, Feb. 3.—(Special)—Jamestown's business section was again hit by a disastrous fire last night and the store of the Printz Clothing Company was damaged 75% by fire, smoke and water.

The stores of Lipman's, mens clothing and Jessup and Turner, clothing were also damaged by smoke and water. Damage is estimated at $75,000 by Fire Chief Rudolph Swanson.

The fire was discovered at 9:15 last night by passersby when the flames were seen coming from a shaft in the three story building occupied by the Printz store. The building is three stories in height in the front portion and two stories in the rear. From all indications the fire started on the lower floor and spread from there. The shaft ran from the basement to the roof and acted as a chimney drawing the fire upward. Flames at one time rose 100 feet above the building and attracted a huge crowd to the down town section.

Every piece of fire apparatus in the city was in use and the Celoron Company acted as standbys at the City Hall station to act in an emergency. The fire was brought under control early today.

Sam Printz, president of the Printz store, said the fire was caused by a short circuit in the wiring.

JAP SOLDIERS ARE DYING OF EXHAUSTION

Bodies of Nipponese, Apparent Victims of Hunger and Exhaustion, Give Proof of Effects of Blockade

UNITS DISINTEGRATING

Allied Headquarters in the Southwest Pacific, Feb. 3.—(P)—Sprawling bodies of Japanese dead, apparently victims of hunger and exhaustion, gave proof today of the efficiency of the Allied sea and air blockade of the northeast New Guinea coast.

Australians pushed northwestward along the coast past Reiss Point, advancing another two miles toward the 32nd American Army Division's invasion area around Saidor. Only 30 miles now separate advance units of the two forces, with the Japanese between them desperately trying to escape the squeeze.

The enemy's fighting units in the area "seem to have disintegrated into the mountain passes and trails in an escape endeavor," Gen. Douglas MacArthur's communiqué said. The Aussies are constantly coming across Japanese dead which show that starvation and exhaustion, not bullets, killed them.

Another Australian force which is consolidating recently won positions in the Ramu valley, interior New Guinea, found 220 abandoned Japanese dead, the communiqué said. The Aussies here are driving toward the enemy coastal base at Madang, about 40 miles to the northeast.

American army troops on Bougainville island in the Solomon used flame throwers and tanks—the first employment of tanks by the army in Solomons fighting—to extend their holdings in the Empress Augusta Bay area, on the west side of the island.

Fighter and bomber planes of the South Pacific command, operating from Solomons bases, twice attacked Rabaul, New Britain, Sunday, shooting down eight enemy fighters, and destroying seven more planes and damaging 15 on the ground at Tobera airfield. Four Allied planes failed to return.

Nazi Suicide Squads in The Outskirts of Cassino Being Mowed Down By Allied Forces

By DON WHITEHEAD
Allied Headquarters in Italy, Feb. 3.—(P)—American troops had battled to within 500 yards of Cassino from the north today and Allied headquarters announced that the core of the German's Gustav Line was "seriously threatened."

The Americans and French tore wide gaps in the Gustav Line in bloody fighting in the mountains to the rear of the stronghold, despite a hail of fire from German six-barreled Nebelwerfer mortars and self-propelled guns manned by a "last ditch" garrison fighting from the ruins.

At the same time other Americans were making a direct frontal attack on the ancient city guarding the open Liri valley. To the north, meanwhile, Allied troops enlarged their Anzio bridgehead in the face of desperate German counterattacks and engaged in hard fighting in several sectors. One of the German counterattacks thrown back was just west of Littoria.

With their Cassino front, near collapse the Germans were throwing attacks against the beachhead with increasing strength as new elements arrived in the enemy line in an effort to seal off the most serious threat to Rome. But despite the threat from every side the Germans contested every inch of ground and burrowed in the ruins like the Russian defenders of Stalingrad.

From 50 to 100 bombs smashed into wireless installations at Durazzo on the Albanian coast when Liberators of Maj. Gen. Nathan F. Twining's 15th Air Force set out to wreck that Nazi communication center in the Balkans.

Mitchells blocked the Apennine Way 11 miles south of Rome at Albano and Warhawks bombed Cisterna where American troops fought on the outskirts of that Apennine town.

Marino at the edge of the beachhead and the docks at Frosinone also were attacked by planes. In other operations in the Balkan theater Warhawks attacked shipping off the Yugoslav coast. Spitfires shot up trains and trucks moving along the Yugoslav coast, and night raiders hit Maribor, in Yugoslavia.

FOUR-RUNWAY ROI AIRFIELD IS CAPTURED

Airfield and Anchorage, Keys to Kwajalein Are Invested by Yank Invaders

MARINES MOPPING UP

By CHARLES H. MCURTREY
Pearl Harbor, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The four-day-old United States invasion of the heart of the Marshalls, a tactical surprise so complete that a vital air base for bombers and fighters was captured in less than a day, threatened the Japanese today with imminent loss of a fine harbor.

The four-runway airfield at Roi, on the northern end of Kwajalein atoll, was overrun Tuesday, the second day of invasion and on the same day that forces went ashore at that point. The deep anchorage of boomerang-shaped Kwajalein islet on the southern end of Kwajalein atoll is seriously menaced, with one-third of the islet already in American hands.

The airfield and the anchorage are the keys to Kwajalein, world's largest atoll, thus promising the Americans investment of all its more than 30 islets surrounding a 655-square-mile lagoon.

The capture of Roi airfield and the invasion of Kwajalein islet were announced late yesterday by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz. These developments had been made possible by initial landings Monday on nearby Cays from which artillery was able to support the larger moves.

American marines landed Tuesday on Namur, adjacent to Roi on the northern end of Kwajalein atoll, and Alva Dopping, Associated Press war correspondent, reported from there yesterday that the leathernecks were mopping up on the last enemy resistance.

In the preparatory assaults, more than 5,000 tons of explosives hit Roi and Namur and an equal number smashed at Kwajalein islet. Such furious attacks enabled all landings to be achieved against what was described officially as "little resistance."

While marines and army veterans of the Aleutian campaign expanded their holdings on Kwajalein, invaded Monday, other fortified atolls in the mid-Pacific (Turn to Page Eleven)

Physician In Pittsburgh Is Shot and Killed

Former Woman Patient Calmly Admits to Police She Committed Murder

WAS UNDER TREATMENT

Pittsburgh, Feb. 3.—(P)—Dr. Louis I. Shulman, 42, president of the Pittsburgh Medical Forum, was shot and killed last night as he left his office, and shortly afterward a woman walked into Central Police Station and calmly remarked, according to acting Sgt. Leo Walsh:

"I just shot a man. Here is the gun."

Detective Inspector Walter Monaghan identified the woman as Miss Martha Ashear, a 38-year old seamstress and a former patient of the slain physician.

Monaghan said she told him she fired two bullets from a .38 calibre revolver at the prominent doctor "because I blame him for my troubles."

The shooting occurred in front of Dr. Shulman's office in the Oakland section after he and a patient, Miss Jeanette Coury, emerged from the building.

Monaghan said Miss Ashear told him she shot the physician in the chest twice and left the scene. (Turn to Page Eleven)

Myers In Top Spot To Head Party Slate

Harrisburg, Feb. 3.—(P)—Francis J. Myers, two term congressman from Philadelphia, took up the top spot today from consideration as the Democratic organization candidate for the U. S. senate as party leaders gathered for tomorrow's state-endorsing meeting of the state committee.

Myers would head the Democratic organization ticket for the seat now held by Senator James J. Davis, Republican, who is expected to be re-elected.

That leader also said that a tentative slate had likewise been drawn up of other state wide candidates to be nominated at the April 25 primary, and that he expected it was "pretty close" to that which would be finally adopted.

David L. Lawrence, Democratic state chairman, said that U. S. Senator Joseph P. Guffey had sent word from Washington that he expected to come here to participate in the final candidate-slating conference but that Guffey was uncertain whether he could remain for Friday's committee meeting because of the soldier vote situation at the national capital.

Kiwanis Club Ladies' Night Great Success

A group of 60 Kiwanis Club members and their ladies gathered in the Hotel Carver last evening for the annual Ladies' Night observance arranged by Chairman Henry Ledebur and his program committee.

Kiwanis President Karl Peterson asked Cmdr. Z. Magno de Carvalho, here on special duty for the Brazilian navy and member of the club, to give the invocation and this was done reverently in his native Portuguese tongue.

The banquet menu was well planned and a credit to the hotel management.

R. Pierson Eaton was at the piano for group singing of Kiwanis songs and old favorites, led by John H. Stewart and one of the evening's highlights. Both were highly commended for their contribution to the evening's program.

Lucien Warren, well known civic leader of Jamestown and member of the Jamestown Kiwanis Club, was guest speaker. His remarks were in a humorous vein and he ably entertained the group for more than an hour.

MORE GROSBREAKS

Mrs. Clarence Akeley, of Russell in a call to the Times-Mirror this morning reported that a flock of grosbeaks has been staying on her property for some time. They are roosting in the spirea bushes near her home and their fine color and heavy beaks identifies them as real grosbeaks.

CLUB HONORS LADIES

Members of the Gunplanter Gun Club were hosts last evening for their annual Ladies' night, attended by about 60 persons. On the schedule were a fine twelve dinner, movies provided by Archie Hunter, dancing to the music of Jerry McCune. Special guests were Game Warden George Norris and Mrs. Norris, North Warren; Fish Warden Ross Bailey, Youngsville.

UNIT ORGANIZES

The public relations committee of the Warren County Girl Scout Council held its organization meeting last evening in the Scout office on Fourth avenue. Mrs. Bertram Messerly is chairman of this group and Mrs. Everett Eddy, vice chairman. Plans were discussed concerning local observance of the 32nd anniversary of Girl Scouting, which this year falls on Sunday, March 12.

PLANNING BANQUET

The annual father and son banquet for members and friends of Grace Methodist church will be held Friday evening, February 11, and reservations are to be made with any member of the following committee: Lewis Garber, Clayton Kyler, Ervin Rader, Howard Smith or Dwight Silze. The McCurdy Class is sponsoring the affair in honor of the church's Boy Scout Troop and the entertainment committee is hard at work to provide fun for all.

SAMUEL LEWIS MACK

Samuel Lewis Mack, of 127 Conewango avenue, passed away at his home Wednesday afternoon at 12:45 o'clock after a brief illness. Mr. Mack was born in Warren and has been a life-long resident of this community. He was a well-known contract painter and interior decorator. Surviving are his wife, Emma Kabein Mack; two daughters, Mrs. Martin Hill, of Charleston, W. Va., Mrs. Saford Hiller, of Jamestown, N. Y.; one grandson, S/Sgt. John M. Hill, of Fort Jackson, S. C.; a sister, Mrs. David Whale, of Madison, O.; two brothers, Frank Mack, of Warren, and Nebo Mack, of Clarendon Heights, also several nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at his home, where funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at three o'clock, with interment in Oakland cemetery.

HANNAH G. AMIDON

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Henderson and Lincoln chapel in Jamestown for Mrs. Hannah G. Amidon, who died Monday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Belle Sadley, Jackson street, North Warren. Rev. Lee Smith conducted the rites and the following acted as bearers for interment in Lakeview cemetery: Richard Thoren, Winfred Lindblad, Claus Ross, Earl Amidon, Lewis Sadler and William J. Yeager.

Among those who attended the rites were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Amidon, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Nell Amidon, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Amidon, Olean, N. Y.; Mrs. William Raustler, Rochester.

N. Y.: Pfc. Lewis L. Sadler, Willow Run airport, Ypsilanti, Mich.; Mrs. Belle Sadler, Mrs. Gertrude Sadler, North Warren; William J. Yeager, Warren.

Mrs. Amidon, widow of Arthur A. Amidon, had resided nearly all her life in Jamestown, coming here about five years ago to make her home with her daughter. She was 93 years of age last October and had been in failing health for some time. Besides Mrs. Sadler, she leaves these children: Mrs. Pearl Adye and Levi L. Amidon, Jamestown; Otto M., of Buffalo, and Miss Nell, in New York; also eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Johnstown Ends Disaster Menace And Tries to Forget About Floods

No longer the menacing stream which 23 times in a century brought destruction and tragedy to Johnstown, Pa., Stony Creek now flows quietly through a deep channel and between high concrete revetments. With the Conemaugh river similarly restrained, the city's flood dangers are ended.

By NEA Service

Johnstown—This town and the U. S. Army Engineers have licked the menace that made "Johnstown floods" a national byword for disaster.

Some folks wanted to leave a few highwater marks around to commemorate the town's half-century battle against it. But not many. Today, 100,000 men, women and children are writing people everywhere: "Johnstown is flood-proof. At last we can forget the word 'flood' for all time."

Since 1833, two rivers 23 times have broken loose on Johnstown. Water 26.6 feet above flood stage cost 2300 lives and $10,000,000 in 1889, and the event was impressed on everybody's memory by the then-new telegraphic news accounts. Plays, novels dramatized the flood; it became a legend.

On St. Patrick's Day, 1936, a third of the city was flooded, 15 died, $40,000,000 of property was lost in the water 20.2 feet above flood stage.

Now the streams are just docile Stony creek and Conemaugh river mountain water impaled in concrete tanks 8 to 12 inches thick, 37 to 67 feet high. The rivers join in the heart of the coal and steel city.

Following the flood of 1936, a reservoir-controlled project was planned, but it proved not feasible. Johnstown newspapers, county and city officials, merchants went into action, soon informed federal officials that the people were ready to put up $2,000,000 of their own for efficient flood prevention. Army engineers then made hundreds of model tests in Vicksburg, Miss. These showed the rivers could be controlled by deepening and widening their channels. The work started. War stalled it. But Johnstown's kept at it, moving congress to keep funds coming, finding materials and labor. Now the $8,670,000 project is finished. The "Flood City" is safe.

New Sylvania Plant Goes To Williamsport

Increased demands for the products of Sylvania's Industrial Apparatus Plant in Emporium, Pennsylvania, have dictated expansion to larger quarters and Roger M. Wise, Director of Engineering has announced that Williamsport, Pa., has been chosen as the new location.

The company already has available space there in their newly acquired plant on West Third street—space which will nearly triple the floor area now devoted to the manufacture of war-vital electronic equipment. Furthermore, the supply of labor for meeting expanding activities is far better in Williamsport than in Emporium where the company already employs nearly all available workers.

The moving process is being done gradually, and will continue to the latter part of February. A single department at a time is being moved in such a manner as to result in no lost production time. When the present quarters are entirely vacated, they will be re-occupied by units of the main Receiving Tube Plant's Production Development Section.

Although many of the employees will remain in Emporium to augment the forces of the company's other plants there, the administrative and engineering organizations of Industrial Apparatus will move practically intact to Williamsport. The plant will remain under the management of Virgil M. Graham, Sylvania radio engineer who is widely known not only for his company activities, but as an Assistant Director of the R. M. A. Engineering Department and chairman of the Rochester Fall Meeting Committee which sponsors the popular annual industry meeting of that name.

TIMES TOPICS

WILL MEET TOMORROW

The regular meeting of the County Council of Defense will be held at the Council office, 311 Market street on Friday afternoon, February 4.

JOINS THE NAVY

It is learned today from the Jamestown Naval Recruiting office that Raymond Simonsen, of Warren, RD 3, was one of seven local boys to join the navy and be sworn in during the month of January. Others in the group were announced previously.

GOING TO CENTER

Twenty young men from this county will leave tomorrow for an eastern reception center. They will go on the morning train and a large number will be at the station to see them off. The boys will be given the usual remembrances before they board the train and a group picture will be taken.

INSTRUCTORS' GROUPS

The February meeting of the instructors for first aid, life saving and accident prevention groups will be held at 8 p. m. Friday at Red Cross headquarters, R. L. Endress, of the Bell Telephone Company, will address the units after which there will be a first aid practice period.

MINUTE MEN MEET AGAIN

Co. 62A Penna. Minute Men, will meet at the armory Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Matters of organization will be discussed, also members of Co. I, Penna. State Guard, will demonstrate disassembly and assembly of a sub-machine gun. This will be an interesting meeting and all members are requested to be present.

AVAILABLE FOR SERVICE

Persons enrolled in the various protective services under the Council of Defense have been notified by County Chairman Allan Gibson that are available for a disaster service whether caused by an enemy or not and that in case of injury are entitled to all the benefits of the Temporary War Civilian Security Program.

WON WAR BOND

Carl A. Anderson was the fortunate winner of a $25 War Bond at the regular meeting of the Moose Lodge held last evening in the Moose Temple on Hickory street. At the meeting reports were heard from the delegates to the Secretaries meeting held last week end in Harrisburg and some interesting matter was given attention in that connection. It was also announced that Regional Director Jack Stoehr will be in Warren next week at which time a meeting will be held in Corry in an effort to get a new lodge for Corry under way. There are about 250 members of the Warren Lodge residing in Corry and they are trying to get a lodge under way there and plans have been made for such an organization if certain conditions can be fulfilled. Some discussion of the State Convention to be held in Johnstown June 22, 23, 24 and 25 was also indulged in.

At the height of the Battle of Britain, from Aug. 1 to the end of September, 1940, over 300 pilots were reported saved by parachutes.

To the People of this Community

IS YOUR SHIELD UP?

"Our Allies march forward with us. The God of justice fights on our side. Let us then strengthen ourselves for the tasks yet lying ahead."

"With high courage let us redouble our efforts and multiply our blows so that we may more quickly recross the seas to our homeland with the glorious word that the last of the enemy strongholds has fallen and with the proud knowledge of having done in our time our duty to our beloved country."

This is General Dwight D. Eisenhower addressing men from this community and countless other communities as they continued the attack against the Nazis.

However, the General's message applies equally to you at home. Extra War Bond buying is more urgent than ever. Mountains of supplies, a home front which is as aggressive and as invasion-minded as the troops who are actually in battle—these things are reflected in the showing we make as citizens and as a community during the 4th War Loan. Are you displaying the Fourth War Loan shield?

Good Public Relations Theme Of Talk To Bell Employees

Good public relations for a corporation are the result of honest business management and a high grade, up to the minute, product or service, Peter L. Schauble, of Philadelphia, vice president in charge of public relations of the Bell Telephone Company, told local telephone employees last night at the Emory Hotel, Bradford.

They also result from "an organization of good people who have the know-how and the desire to produce a product or render a service which is pleasing to the buyer," he added.

At the present time, he said, war conditions sometimes make it impossible for the telephone company to provide all the service the public desires.

"Copper, lead, zinc, rubber and other materials out of which a telephone plant is built, are practically unavailable," he pointed out. "Sometimes we cannot make new connections immediately. There are delays on some telephone calls, particularly to war centers. Such things are not conducive to good public relations."

"But it is our job as telephone people to tell the facts which cause these things, so the public will understand. It is our experience that the public is cooperative when it understands the

"why" of these conditions." He emphasized that every effort is made by the company to give all employees the facts to answer any question about the business asked by subscribers. "If you don't know the answer, you are urged to come and get it and pass it along to the questioner," he told the employees.

Raftsmen Plan Reunion During June At Cooksburg Grove

H. L. Carson, of Clarion, President of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Raftsmen's Association, announces that at a recent conference of officials of the organization it was decided to hold the annual reunion of the old timers this year as was done in the days before the war. The date was set for Saturday, June 24. The gathering will be at Cooksburg.

It has been three years since the raftsmen held their last get-together and they are quite proud of the fact that theirs was among the very first of organizations of their kind to anticipate the desire of the government officials in discontinuing gatherings of this nature. This year, however, they feel that circumstances are such that they should make an extra special effort to once again meet in annual reunion. Their ranks are fast thinning and they know that the proverbial "old man with the scythe" is no respecter of wishes, desires or good intentions. For this reason the comparatively few who remain plan to meet once again, to hold their annual memorial service for those who have departed since their last gathering, and to clasp hands with their old time friends whom they seldom see.

The officers of the organization are as follows: President, H. L. Carson of Clarion; secretary, George Sheffer of Clarion; treasurer, Sylvester Truman of Brookville. It is the desire of the officers that the friends of those who have passed away since the last reunion report their names to one of the officers at once in order that they may be included in the memorial.

'News'Anne L. Krantz Is Tuesday Bride Of
Pfc. Emerson Hyatt

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at nine o'clock Tuesday morning in Holy Redeemer church, when Anne Louise Krantz, daughter of Mrs. Karl A. Krantz, Jackson avenue, became the bride of Pfc. Emerson Singen Hyatt, of the Army Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson M. Hyatt, Terrace street.

Father Salvatore Mitchell officiated at the rites and Mrs. Marie Clark Dillon, church organist, played the wedding march and other suitable selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Alfred W. Krantz, of Cleveland, O., wore Venetian blue, in street length, with a yoke effect of self color French fringe. Her hat was a wild grape featured calot and she wore a matching orchid corsage. The bridegroom's sister and matron of honor, Mrs. William E. Turey, of Buffalo, N. Y., wore a suit of gold wool and a corsage of Talisman roses. Doris Mavrellis, as bridesmaid, wore beige, also with a corsage of Talisman roses. For his best man, Pfc. Hyatt chose Dr. Robert A. Gerrety.

The bride's mother wore air force blue with black accessories and corsage of Briardiff roses and Mrs. Hyatt wore a corsage of Johanna Hill roses with black.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the YWCA activities building for immediate families and the bridal group.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will spend the remainder of Pfc. Hyatt's furlough in Warren. He will then return to his post and Mrs. Hyatt will remain at home. Both young people are graduates of Warren High School. Mrs. Hyatt attended Grove City College and has been employed for the past two years in the engineering office of the Bell Telephone Company.

How to RUIN DRESSES AND LOSE FRIENDS

Tragic how some girls lose their dresses and ruin their friends because of perspiration odor and stains. And it's no excuse for it! It's easy to save dresses, it's easy to save friends. Use Arid, the new cream deodorant. It helps keep your armpits dry and over the odor from perspiration. It is safe and dependable for 5 reasons:

1. Prevents under-arm odor. Helps stop perspiration safely.
2. A pure white, antiseptic, stainless cream.
3. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.
4. Awarded Approval Seal of American Institute of Laundering—harmless to fabric. Use Arid regularly.
5. Arid is the largest selling deodorant. Sold at all stores selling toilet goods—10c, 30c and 50c a jar.

Does not irritate skin. Does not rot dresses or men's shirts.

FLIGHT from LOVE

by JOHN C. FLEMING and LOIS EBY

Chapter 4

arter's face split in a wailing grin, as he straightened up after depositing baggage in the aisle of the plane.

"You kiddin', ma'am?"

She brought her gaze back to the car window where she had seen the outskirts of Melrose moving past.

"No," she said. "I merely asked a drawing room."

The porter chuckled. "Ma'am, drawing rooms have been reserved for months on this train, as you haven't been traveling since the war began."

Conductor was coming along the aisle. There was no one in his manner, but after a discourse to Julie on the thoughtlessness of leaping onto a train, he remembered a vacation that hadn't been in an upper berth in twelve years.

He shrugged. What did it matter? She could have had half a dozen drawing rooms and she hadn't enjoyed this trip, followed the conductor.

There was early morning and confusion in every room. Porters were making up. Passengers in bathrobes were past them on their way to a washroom.

Cups of soldiers filled the car. They took one look at Julie's piquant face in its mass of curls, at her slender, suited figure with the scarves, and whistled in chorus.

Julie hardly noticed. Her eyes and her pride had been lulled last night it would take more than the idle whistles of soldiers to resurrect them.

She smiled gratefully at the porter when he managed to wander down without a word to the middle-aged business man beside her.

She followed the dragging sunlight in a tortured circle of eyes without answers.

It had happened to Dave that last night when he went away from Melrose as an inductee? They had walked in the garden and looked down on the town and he had said:

"I hate to go away from you, Julie. I love you. I've worshipped you since I can remember. Since you used to drive your little pony cart down the hill. I'd hang around the gate to wave."

She remembered with bitter humor now that she had been pleased and proud at his love, had taken it lightly, as a matter of course.

Now suddenly the structure of her life and her identity was shaking about her. She couldn't understand it. The war to her up to last night had been only distant rumble, a pageantry of uniforms, a motif for farewell parties. True, there had been a strange, rising desolation in her as the sheltered, midwest community gradually made the inevitable shift of values. She had felt the withdrawal of attention from the tight little social realm over which she held sway.

Now Dave no longer loved her.

It made the pattern of her life suddenly meaningless. For the first time she realized how she had lived increasingly in her dreams of Dave during these last months. It had been pride, too, of course. His picture in the paper. His clean-cut face, his eyes with that keen gaze of the aviator. Those stories of his heroism, of his medals.

Her heart throbbed with sudden fresh pain, as she felt her way to slow realization. That was it. Dave had been everywhere. For the first time in his life he had traveled. He had seen girls in New York, in London, in Cairo, in San Francisco. She, Julie, was no longer the princess of the house on the hill. She was, to him now only a small town girl.

Small wonder he had been bored with her last night, eager to dance with everyone. And then she had begged him to marry her. Her cheeks flamed with a strange, new shame.

The hours passed, in a blur of misery. She groped her way up through the cars to the dining car. It was jammed with soldiers.

Philomel Votes To Join National Federation Again

Philomel Club members, holding their February business and study meeting at the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon, voted to again become a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Years ago, when Mrs. W. M. Lindsey was club president, the local group was affiliated with the national and state groups and benefitted greatly from the association. However, the membership was allowed to lapse and it was not until some years later that it was renewed.

In 1929 the local club was hostess to the state convention of the federation and soon afterward, because of the depression years, again lapsed in its membership. Much valuable assistance is gained by smaller clubs from federation membership and it is a recognition of the worth of the local organization.

The study for yesterday dealt with Beethoven, Mozart and Haydn, presented by Mrs. Jessie Swain Gilring, and will be followed by a program on the same theme next Wednesday, when Mrs. Harriett Wilkins is chairman.

Library Hopes For Cooperation In Story Hour

One week from today, starting at four o'clock in the afternoon, the Warren Public Library will open its new "Children's Story Hour," when Mrs. Gerald Archibald, children's story-teller will draw from the treasure house of children's literature some of the choicest stories.

It is hoped that the hour set will allow time for all the children to reach the public library from any of the public schools, so that this may be a really community story hour.

The magic of "Once Upon a Time," has cast its spell upon old and young ever since the days when minstrels sat before kings spinning their tales. Ancient truths have been kept alive through fairy tales of all people; and the influence of the Grimm brothers or Hans Anderson has been greater than that of most conquerors. The true meaning of life has been communicated unconsciously through the story of the Blue Bird, Jack slaying his giants, Cinderella among the ashes, singing to herself, or Snow White's dwarf's mining gold in a hidden mountain.

In the midst of falling, changing things, it seems important to build up the changeless things for children to give them some sense of security and permanence. The enjoyment of a real story time is one of the experiences a child never forgets. And so many children miss some of the choicest stories because they have never become acquainted with them.

GARBAGE LITTERS MANY PHILADELPHIA STREETS

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—(A)—Many sections of Philadelphia today were still buried under piles of rubbish, garbage and ashes, almost two weeks after the settlement of a crippling strike of city street cleaners and trash collectors.

Civic leaders, surveying the mess which made scores of streets within a few blocks of City Hall virtually impassable, called it "filthy."

Officials of the city's two leading automobile clubs warned motorists to keep off streets which are still littered.

LIFE EXPECTANCY OF STATE IS LONGER

Harrisburg, Feb. 3.—(A)—Improved public health conditions and progress in medical care have added six years to the life expectancy of Pennsylvania babies since 1920, a survey by the Commerce Department's state planning board has disclosed.

"At birth a Pennsylvania child now has the expectation of living for 63 and 1/5 years," declared the board after computing a new life table for the state.

"If that same child survives the first year of life, its further expectancy rises to 65.45 years which represents an increase of more than six years since 1920 and an increase of nearly three years since 1930."

Why did Doctors Vote 7 to 1 for BEAMS

There are mighty good reasons why
321 out of 365 preferred this
NEW VITAMIN FORMULA

8 VITAMINS! Extra-Potency
B COMPLEX plus A, D, C.

Recently, 321 out of 365 doctors, who answered questionnaires, voted Beams a better vitamin supplement than six leading brands.

Why did these doctors choose Beams? The big reason is, we believe, that Beams give a more potent or more comprehensive B Complex... plus vitamins A, D and C! 8 vitamins in all! And one capsule a day supplies more than the recommended minimum requirements... extra potencies of vitamins B, B₁₂ and Nicotinamide, as well as extra potencies of A and D.

THOUSANDS CAN SAVE 40¢ to $1.00 a month. Beams cost as little as 3.8¢ a day... not 5¢, 6¢ or 7¢ a day! Ask your druggist for Beams! Lambert Vitamins Co., Inc., New York, New York.

ORDER BLANKS READY FOR TREE PURCHASERS

Harrisburg, Feb. 3.—Application blanks are now ready for Pennsylvania land owners who wish to order forest tree seedlings from the Department of Forests and Waters for reforesting idle lands in the State during the spring planting season, O. Ben Gipple, Chief of the Division of Management, said today.

Forest trees are sold for $2.00 per thousand for seedlings and $5.00 per thousand for transplants. Applications may not be filed for less than a thousand trees but two kinds of five hundred each may be ordered.

Trees may be planted in late March or early April before other field work begins. Available trees include: Seedlings—white pine, red pine, Norway spruce, white spruce, Hemlock, red oak, white oak, black locust and black walnut. Transplants—red pine, white pine and Norway spruce.

Order blanks and an illustrated booklet giving prices, methods of planting, and brief descriptions of the kinds of trees available may be obtained from the Department of Forests and Waters, Harrisburg.

When driving on packed snow or icy pavement, don't make quick stops or sudden turns. By pumping the brakes only lightly, you reduce the danger of a skid.

Secretary of Labor Dinner Guest Here

W. H. Chestnut, secretary of Labor and Industry in Governor Martin's cabinet, was the guest of honor at a dinner last evening at seven o'clock in the Geracimos private dining room, which was attended by elective and appointive officers of Warren county.

Jesse G. Smith, chairman of the Warren County Republican committee, presided during the informal program that followed the dinner. In introducing Mr. Chestnut, it was expressed that the limited facilities and brief notice of the visit made it impossible to invite more residents of the borough and county who would have enjoyed being present.

Mr. Chestnut responded briefly to the welcome extended and reminded his listeners that the Department of Labor and Industry is always anxious to be of service to citizens of the state.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Hon. Allison D. Wade, president judge. This was followed by an informal discussion with most of the officers participating, during which many suggestions were brought out which will be found very helpful by those in attendance.

Wool Growers Of 4 Counties Met Monday

About 50 sheep raising farmers of Crawford, Erie, Warren and Venango counties attended the annual meeting of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Wool Growers Association held Monday afternoon at the Titusville YMCA. County Agent E. G. Ifft of Venango county and Assistant Crawford County Agent L. D. Shoemaker, were also present.

The following officers and directors were elected for 1944: President, Albert Smith, Union City (Bloomfield township); vice president, William Ludwick, Bear Lake; secretary-treasurer, Harry Miles, Route 3, Titusville. These, with the following, constitute the board of directors: William Warnhuis and Brady Skelton, Edinboro; Floyd McCurdy, Route 1, Titusville; Harry Talmadge, McKean; James Sharp, Diamond; Robert Scott, Bear Lake; Charles Nelson, Cochran; and Fred Haynes, of Guys Mills.

Following the business meeting, the group listened to three excellent talks, following which there was a forum of discussion. Dr. William Thorpe, of State College, spoke on parasites among sheep and recommended phenothalazine as one of the best remedies; W. B. (Bill) Connell, State College sheep specialist, spoke regarding the marketing of sheep and Henry Kinders, of Boston, outlined the new marketing system for wool, which, he said, requires additional expense coming out of the farmer selling wool.

The meeting continued for about three hours. The annual meeting of the directors to receive bids for the 1944 wool pool will be held late in June or early July in Titusville.

YOUNGVILLE NEWS

Youngville, Feb. 3.—Word has been received from former supervising principal of Youngville school, Paul R. Getts, who left Youngville Friday, January 28th, for Pittsburgh. From Pittsburgh he was sent to New York City for his indoctrination course as an officer in the navy. Many local friends will be interested in his present address which is: Lieut. Paul R. Getts, Jr., U. S. N. R.; 24087 Class 23 N. T. S., Fort Schuyler, New York (61) N. Y.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN

The young people of the United Brethren church observed Young People's Week by a gathering at the church Tuesday evening in which plans were made for conducting the evening service in the United Brethren church next Sunday evening, Feb. 6, 1944. The entire service for this evening will be sponsored by the young people. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Fleming have received word from their son, James C., who is now in the navy, that he has arrived at the Great Lakes Training Station, Ill., where he will take his boot training.

The Official Board of the Methodist church, meeting Tuesday evening of this week, approved of a campaign of home visiting as suggested in the recent Bishop Crusade meeting in Erie, which was attended by the pastor of the local church and several members. The visit to members will be for the purpose of giving them direction of ways in which they may have some part in the plan to promote a just and lasting peace when the war shall end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pollard have just enjoyed a visit from Mr. Pollard's brother, A. W. Pollard, of Rochester, N. Y.

The following seniors of the Youngville high school compose the cast of the senior play "She's a Soldier's Sweetheart": Ross Bailey, Louis Franklin, Irene Goodwill, Kenneth Bradway, Marlen Danielson, Norma See, Pat McKinney, Duane McIntyre, Steve Sevel, Winnie Fernin, John Wroblewski, Carmen Henderson, Louise Johnson, Betty Jo Zelliff, Jack Wood and Norge Luvison. The play, which is being given Thursday and Friday evening of this week, is a comedy with one feature, the playlet "Red Riding Hood", produced as a play within a play.

Norris Freborough and Jack Dalley from Camp Blanding are home for a five-day leave before going to a camp in Maryland. They are glad to be here for the senior class play as they were both active members of that class until they entered the service in September.

and wife, Frank Young is a son of Mrs. C. A. Young also a grandson of Mrs. Colosimo. Mrs. Frank Young is a daughter of Mrs. Zerbe.

James Holt spent a short leave here with his mother. He is located at Great Lakes Training Center.

James Snyder leaves for Philadelphia this week to take his examination for U. S. Navy.

Clyde Himebaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colosimo are still on the sick list.

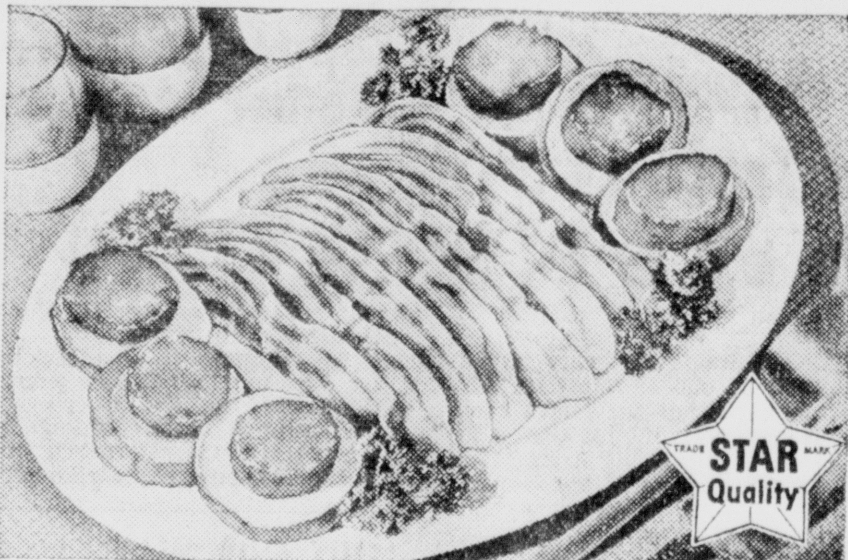

The warm weather of the past few days has cleared the river of ice.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Flatt were visitors of Mrs. Flatt's sister at Salamanca, N. Y.

The people of Kinzua can be thankful to Richard Morrison for drilling a number of oil and gas wells around town. If it were not for the putting of his gas into the lines the town would be without gas.

Word has been received from Walter B. English, who is somewhere in Sicily that he is recovering nicely from some burns he received recently.

Armour Ideas Make the Most of Meat

Star Bacon with Sweet Potatoes and Apples

Here's a point-easy dinner that's mighty easy to prepare. Everything you need for it is easy to get—your market is sure to have these foods on hand. And what a wonderful combination of fine flavors—bacon, sweet potatoes and apples! All favorites! Ration-wise, this meal is a real bargain—takes so few meat points per person! It takes just a few slices of Armour's Star Bacon to provide the satisfaction of a big meat meal—because Star Bacon is richly flavorful—sugar-cured in its own juices, then slow-smoked over fragrant hickory and hardwood fires!

Cook 2 unpeeled, medium sized sweet potatoes in boiling water until tender—then peel and slice in thick crosswise slices. Core 2 tart apples and slice in half inch slices. Place 1/2 lb. of sliced Star Bacon in cold frying pan. Fry slowly over low heat for 10 to 12 minutes, turning frequently and pouring off fat as it accumulates. When crisp but not brittle the bacon is done. Using some of the bacon drippings, fry the apples and slices of sweet potatoes. Serve as illustrated. Serves 4. ★ ARMOUR AND COMPANY

National Forge Battles Mighty Irish on "Y" Court Tonight

Champ Tells How

Ned Day, of West Allis, Wis., national match game bowling champion, gives a few pointers on the art of pin tumbling to pretty Jean Dupont, Chicago bowling miss.

The 4-7-10 split defies the skill of the best bowler, but it can be conquered by sliding over the 4-pin to take care of the 10 as the ball hits the 7-pin.

O'Connors Arrive On Local Court Intact For Crucial Tilt at 8 P.M.

This evening on the hardwood at the Y. M. C. A. a basketball game will be played which promises to be one of the fastest, scrappiest and keenly contested to be seen in the league this season. The National Forge and Ordnance team will play the Sheffield O'Connors.

The game is the playoff for the first half and each team has won seven and lost one so far. The game is accompanied with much interest and the followers of the league will turn out en masse to see the fray.

Both teams are in top form and the game should be a real treat for those who gather to do a bit of rooting for their favorite.

Old Time Sox Pitcher Does Not Approve of Rabbit Ball

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Chicago, Feb. 3.—(P)—This vitamin-filled "rabbit ball" the major leagues are using now, there's something big Ed Walsh, the old Chicago White Sox pitcher, doesn't approve.

Walsh came to Chicago from his Meriden, Conn., home to be guest of honor at tonight's annual Old-Timers Baseball Banquet—an event attracting some 1,000 yarn-spinners. He's carrying the torch for the outlawed spitball, wants it reinstated or the lively ball kicked out.

"Only one in 20 pitchers can throw a real curve today," says the "Big Moose" who was drafted by the late Charles Comiskey for a mere $750 in 1904 and turned into an amazing 40-game winner four years later. "Put the spitball back in and let 'em get their curves with it. Or put a ban on this danged rabbit ball. This generation is getting too honerun conscious. The spitter acts just like a curve, but breaks more on the end."

The 195-pound master of the spitball will be 64 years old in May. He is one of baseball's all-time greats as well as all-time bargains and is confident he could win 50 games or so today despite the reinvigorated ball.

Kane Defeated By Sheffield By 30-22 Score

Tuesday night before a full house the Wolverines of Sheffield High School snapped their losing streak to trim the Kane Wolves. Kane has a good record and was caught by surprise by this fast moving Sheffield outfit. The boys of Sheffield shone when the two guards, Dave Eisenhauer and Neal Van Marter dropped six set shots in one right after another. The high scorers for the night were Van Marter for Sheffield with eight and McMahon with eleven for Kane.

SPORT SHORTS

New York, Feb. 3.—(P)—It is still Lou Gehrig in the hearts of American sportsmen as the late Yankee first baseman continues to lead the popularity poll which is being conducted by a New York sports committee of the fourth war loan drive. Ward Cuff, Giants' pro football star, ranks second with Babe Ruth third. Mel Ott, manager of the New York Giants, has moved into fourth place, displacing Lt. Don Budge. Patty Berg, famous golfing star, spurted into fifteenth place as a new women's leader.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—(P)—Baseball's Hot Stove League was working overtime today as the game's old timers gathered in Chicago for the diamond jubilee dinner of the Old-Timers Baseball Player's Association.

Among the guests of honor will be Ed Walsh, the famed White Sox pitcher; Mordecai (Three-finger) Brown, old time Chicago Cubs hurler; Tony (Count) Mulane, Cincinnati Red Stockings pitcher in the '80's; Charley Grimm, Milwaukee manager and ex major league player and manager, and Ray Schalk, former White Sox catcher and Walsh's battery mate.

Top-Notch Golfers Gather at Phoenix

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 3.—(P)—Thirty-five of the nation's top-notch golfers, here for the $5,000 Phoenix open tournament starting Friday, sized up the lay of the land today in a pre-amateur parade over the par 71 Phoenix Country Club course.

To the pros it was strictly a tune-up for the 72-hole competition over the flat fairways but well-trapped greens which Light-horse Harry Cooper toured yesterday in 64, only one strike off the course record set by Byron Nelson of Toledo, Ohio, several years ago. The tournament is expected to be the rubber-test in the Nelson-Harold (Jug) McSpaden winter tour rivalry which started with the Los Angeles open earlier this year.

The newly shelled alleys didn't seem to effect the Struthers-Wells bowlers much. There were two records broken. The X-Ray rolling 957 to top the old record of 979, and the Foreman "B" rolling a nice 2800 match to top the old 2722 held by the Plate Floor. The Plate Floor went in to first place by topping the Boring Mills for 3 points. Red Stancliffe was the best for the Plate Floor, 560 and 199. For the Boring Mills, who were short 2 men, Bob Check did the best bowling by hitting 568 and 191. The Machine Shop lost 4 points to the Foreman "B". They also lost first place. For the Foreman "B" Coppola was high with 584 while Proud had a 213 game. For the Machine Shop L. Weidert was high with 186 and 546. The Gun Shop lost 4 points to the Heaters, putting the Heaters in 2nd place for the Machine Shop. For the Heaters, Honhart was best with 190 and 524. For the Gun Shop, who as a rule guns everybody but the Heaters, Hoagvall was high with 540 while Steinkamp had 191. The Foreman "A" dropped from 5th place to 7th by losing 3 to the X-Ray. Warren Goes To Youngsville Saturday Nite

Warren High School returns the Youngsville game Saturday night at 8:30 when they travel to the down-county town to battle the Eagles. The locals have turned in one victory over them already this season, but reports have it that the Red and White eagles have improved 100 per cent over their last performance here, which Warren won by a large margin.

Warren is fresh from a victory over Meadville, of District 10, the only team to whip them this year in that sectional battle, and are riding on the crest of 9 victories compared to 3 defeats, expecting to add the Eagles to their string.

Youngsville's latest game was a one-point triumph over Tidoulet, in one of last week's hottest battles. Under two new coaches so far this year, the Eagles have come a long way after losing their first one to the armed services.

Soldier Vote Substitute Not Acceptable
A coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats—among them many of the men who beat the administration's first war ballot proposal two months ago—came into the senate with their substitute proposition yesterday. The plan united in one camp the opposition to the Green-Lucas proposal.

The substitute would retain the federal ballot, but would authorize its use only where the states failed to provide for absentee voting by June. Senator Byrd (D-Va.) announced the governors of 41 states said they either already had or would make adequate provision in time.

Harrisburg, Feb. 3.—(P)—Governor Martin has set up a special committee of state officials to study the soldier vote question and the Pennsylvania absentee voting law, but said today no action would be taken until congress reaches a final decision on a military ballot.

Registration of soldiers the governor described as "the most difficult problem of the Pennsylvania absentee voting law."

Under state law, the registration of Pennsylvania soldiers was frozen when they entered the armed forces, but those who were not then registered must notify county election bureaus of their intent to vote before they can qualify for a ballot.

Harrisburg, Feb. 3.—(P)—Food production goals for Pennsylvania are being outlined at a series of 12 district meetings called by the Federal Agricultural Adjustment Agency, Vice Chairman Clyde A. Zehner announced today.

Some 201 county and 2,434 community A.A.A. committees are expected to attend the meetings.

Other sessions are scheduled at Towanda, Feb. 4 and 5; Gettysburg and Washington, Pa., Feb. 7 and 8; Bedford and Brookville, Feb. 9 and 10; and Lock Haven and Meadville, Feb. 11 and 12. Similar meetings have already been held in Hershey and Allentown.

Harrisburg, Feb. 3.—(P)—Pennsylvania was called on to join in the celebration tomorrow of the third anniversary of USO by Governor Martin who described the organization as "a brilliant achievement in the service of our nation."

Asserting the USO "has earned the gratitude of the American people," the governor asked citizens to visit USO centers in their communities tomorrow, Feb. 5 and 6.

U. S. Fliers Over Targets In Germany

500 bombers, believed to have been a record force of four-engine craft up to that time.

The target is one of Germany's major ports—capable of accommodating the largest ships.

The shattering daylight assault followed RAF Mosquito attacks on targets in western Germany last night, thus keeping the greatest sustained Allied offensive of the war rolling around the clock.

The announced force of 1,100 bombers and fighters making up today's heavy striking force fell short of the record force of 1,500 American bombers and fighters which made the 1,800-ton shattering raid on Frankfurt last Saturday.

Hours after the American heavy bombers had left the smoke and flames of Wilhelmshaven behind them, other Allied bombers and long-range fighters kept streaming across the channel in what appeared to be one of the heaviest offensives in weeks.

One watcher said that one large group of the late returning channel raiders required three-quarters of an hour to pass the coastline.

British aircraft also laid mines in enemy waters during the night, said the announcement. No planes were lost in the forays, which followed a series of daylight assaults by U. S. heavy bombers yesterday on the invasion coast of northern France.

Vital Strongholds Inside Iceland Are Occupied by Reds

The Red army driving along the Gulf of Finland west of captured Kingisepp, reached positions along the Narva river, northwest of the ancient seaport of Narva itself.

This indicated that the Russians now are battling on Estonian soil. While the Moscow advices did not specifically say that the old Estonian frontier had been crossed, the inference was implicit, for the Narva river which flows through Narva into the Gulf of Finland is well inside the former border.

Forty towns northwest and southwest of Kingisepp were captured by Gen. Leonid A. Govorov's Leningrad army yesterday, a Russian communique said. They included Ust-Luga at the mouth of the Luga river on the Gulf of Finland and Monastirek, 17 miles below Kingisepp and five miles from the frontier.

Capture of Kingisepp gave Govorov control of the entire southern shore of the Gulf of Finland but there were indications that the Germans might elect to make a stand in front of Narva with reserves brought up from Revel (Tallinn), western terminus of the railway from Leningrad.

Fire Damages Printz Store In Jamestown
Printz Company, stated this morning that the interior of the store was wrecked and that the loss would be about 75% on all stock and fixtures allowing about 25% that will be salvaged.

Chief Rudolph Swanson was in charge of the fire and all of the off crews were called out and aided in the work. The firemen are being commended today on beating down the blaze which at one time threatened to spread to adjoining business houses. It was held in the one store room, however, and the Lipman and Jessup and Turner stores suffered some from smoke and water but no fire got into any part of either store.

One fireman, Paul Hedlund, suffered a cut on one hand and five stitches had to be taken in the member at the hospital to which he was taken.

Huge crowds were drawn to the scene by the flames and the police handled the crowd in good shape keeping them back of the fire line.

She hailed a taxicab and told the driver to take her to the police station, the detective added.

Monaghan said Miss Ashear told the following story:

In 1931, she said she was injured in a fall and went to Dr. Shulman for treatment. In 1938, the injury returned and she went back for treatment and was given medicine.

Some time later she said she became pregnant and went to the doctor to be treated. She blamed her troubles since then on the doctor and has filed informations against him, one of which is still pending.

Lecturer And Author of Note To Speak Here

What promises to be one of Warren's outstanding events of the winter season will be held in the Y. M. C. A. next Tuesday evening, when Dr. Donald A. Laird, author and lecturer on effective living, will feature the annual Executives Night dinner program of the Warren Foremen's Club.

The sponsoring club feels that it is enjoying a stroke of good fortune to have secured the services of Dr. Laird, known as the world-famous "Humanizer," one whose practical talks, drawn from daily life, are helping thousands get along better in our changing industrial and social world. He is probably the world's best-known psychologist and one of its most popular writers. This fact was born out only today when one of Warren's best known professional men was heard to say: "I have eighty or ninety psychologists and Dr. Laird's is the most interesting of all of them."

Dr. Laird was listed in "Who's Who" before he was thirty and he's still in it, and he has been consultant for some of our largest corporations, as well as for labor organizations. His topic here will be "How to Understand and Work With People," and who would dare to say that he doesn't need help along that line?

Although the Foremen want particularly to have the executive of their industries present, the meeting is being opened to all of the community who are desirous of sharing in the program of which Dr. Laird's address will be almost the sole feature. A good dinner is promised and will be served at 6:30 p. m., the price of the dinner ticket being the only charge of the evening. Because of the problems related to food supplies and rationing, definite advance reservations must be made and these are due at the Y. M. C. A. office no later than Saturday.
